

January 30, 1974

CLERK: Mr. President, I do not have a second Cavanaugh amendment.

SENATOR CAVANAUGH: You will in about two seconds.

PRESIDENT: Stand by, here comes Senator Cavanaugh. Senator Cavanaugh the Chair needs a motion to withdraw your first amendment.

SENATOR CAVANAUGH: I move to withdraw that amendment, and substitute....

PRESIDENT: Stand by, any objections to withdrawing the first Cavanaugh amendment? Any objections? Senator Chambers do you object?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Mr. President, I don't know if this is irregular, but before I speak on that could we have some idea of what his new amendment will say? Cause right now I don't know what he is offering so I don't know whether I want to object or no.

SENATOR CAVANAUGH: OK, Senator Chambers the new amendment would amend a portion of Section 25-2502 to define negotiations as negotiations shall mean communications between representatives of the agency of the property owner or his representative for specifically authorized to attempt to reach an agreement on terms by which the agency shall require such property. It would further amend section 25-2504 to read, (read). The third amendment would read in Section 25-2504 (read). The final amendment would strike section 2505 and add any agency (read).

(end belt #10)

(start belt #11)

Senator Chambers would request that it be printed in the Journal and held over for a day. Do I have any objections to the withdrawal first of all?

PRESIDENT: Senator Chambers do you still object to the withdrawal of the first amendment?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: No, because of the fact if it is necessary that could be offered again, I just can't digest all of that on the spur of the moment.

PRESIDENT: Once again the Chair is asking are there any objections to the withdrawal of the first Cavanaugh Amendment? Any objection? Hearing none so ordered. The first one is withdrawn. Are there objections to printing of this amendment in the Journal and having it lay over for a day? Any objections? Hearing none, so ordered. Move on to the General File consideration of LB323. Senator Marvel's bill.

CLERK: Read LB323.

SENATOR MARVEL: There is an amendment which was inserted in the Journal on page 265 and so I guess that the first order of business is to propose the adoption of the amendment.

CLERK: There are no committee amendments, Mr. President.
